Performance of Rural Development Programmes

*588 SHRIMATI VIPLOVE THAKUR: Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have recently reviewed the implementation of the Rural Development Programmes;

(b) if so, whether any shortcomings in their implementation have been noticed in Himachal Pradesh; and

(c) if so, the follow up action taken by Government for implementation of the schemes, as per the set guidelines?

THE MINISTER OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI RAGHUVANSH PRASAD SINGH): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. Recently the meeting of the Performance Review Committee (PRC) took place on 12th and 13th April 2007 in New Delhi. The review primarily focused on performance of implementation of programmes during 2006-07 and action plan for 2007-08. Review and monitoring of the rural development programmes being implemented by the Ministry is a continuous .and integral part of the programme implementation system. Besides other, the Performance Review Committee (PRC) is a mechanism in the Ministry to review performance of the programmes of the Ministry of Rural Development on a quarterly basis for monitoring the effective execution of various schemes/ programmes. Programmes are reviewed for all the States and Union Territories, including Himachal Pradesh.

In Himachal Pradesh, the utilisation of funds released under Indira Awaas Yojana (IAY) and Pradhan Mantri Gram Sadak Yojana (PMGSY) was found to be good. The utilisation was 94.83 and 102.84% respectively in the year 2006-07. The utilisation of funds was 72.80% in Sampoorna Grameen Rozgar Yojana (SGRY) and 72.57% in Swarnjayanti Gram Swarozgar Yojana (SGSY).

However, the performance of Accelerated Rural Water Supply Programme (ARWSP) is not satisfactory as the utilisation was only 36.62 per cent. In case of National Employment Guarntee Act, Rs. 39.40 crore was spent and 29.9 lakh person days were created.

The State Government, including Himachal Pradesh, were advised to step up the implementation process to achieve the program objectives by encouraging the State Governments to follow five-pronged strategy of awareness generation, people' participation, transparency, accountability and strict vigilance and monitoring.
